input	function	output
average of numbers in an array		[123] = 2

1. //function declaration named find_average with parameter array

2. // variable statement named total assignemt operator 0;

3. //for loop variable i assignemt operator 0; i less than array.length; // i plus plus

4. //total += array at i pointer

5. //return total divided by array.length